The following paragraphs from Mr. Komero's message give some interesting details:

I transmit to the House the report of the sixth statistic section of the Treasmy Department (No. I), which contains detailed receipts to the said six months, formed in said section. According to said report, the total amount of incomes in the six months commencing Jan, 1 and terminating June 30 last is $10,187,663 96 (No. 2) in the following manner:

Supposing that the receipts of the first six months were a million and seven hundred and fifty thousand deliars (31,750,600) less than in the second six months, because the first half year was not complete, and also because the Treasury was not so thoroughly regulated as in the second half year, we would then have eighteen millions six hundred and twenty five thousand three hundred and twenty seven dollars ninety-cents (315,625,37 90) for the approximate receipts of the last fiscal year; a sum which, if cellected this year and put into the national Treasury, would be insufficient to cover the disbursements of the Government; for, according to the Budget of expenditures decreed by Congress on the 30th of May last, they amount to eighteen millions six hundred and ninety-four thousand, four hundred and thirty-eight dollars and eighty-five cents (18,604,528 85).

However, this amount cannot be reckoned upon as yet, because all the proceeds of the national revenues have never entered the national coffers. Some States have disposed of them, entirely or in part, and this may be considered as one of the causes why the Government receives 15 or 20 per cent less of its own and proper revenues, an evil it is endeavoring to avoid with great activity. All the proceeds of the mints are, as a general thing, set gaide for the payment of the credits due contractors, and consequently they cannot be disposed of.

In the department of nationalized property, the proceeds amounted to $567,225 53, of which amount $113,248 50 were in cash, $61,266 47 in credits, $19,045 13 in bonds, $13,068 90 in notes or pagares, $10,131 16 per centage to informers, and the balance in advances and gratifications. The greatest part of the proceeds of this office is reduced to redemptions of hidden capital. It also embraces the branch of fine's and configerations in the Federal District, wherein a small amount is still pending. Three facts lead us to believe that this year the income of this reduced to redemptions of hidden capital. It also embraces the branch of fine's and confiscations in the Federal District, wherein a small amount is still pending. Three facts lead us to believe that this year the income of this office will not reach $300,000, or the half of what is estimated in the budget of incomes of the 27th of May last. With the surplus of the nationalized property a considerable part of the public debt can be extinguished.

The Budget of receipts calculates the proceeds of common stamped paper, in five hundred thousand dollars, and the Federal contribution in one million and a half. Last year there was an accome in the office of stamped paper, of $202,814-24, for common stamped paper, and $1.011.376-32 for the federal contribution, both amounts making a total of $4,31,490-346 (No. 30). The total proceeds arising from common stamped paper, was $686,840-31, and the federal contribution $1,321,230-321, making a sum total of $2,378,120-831. Deducting the expenses of collecting and the exchange, which amounted to $223,311-244, there remains as net product of $2,154,743-591, No. 57) a little more than the amount fixed by Congress in the Budget of receipts for the present year.

The proceeds of this revenue will, nevertheless, be considerably reduced this present fiscal year, because, neording to the law of 27th of May last, the Federal contribution is not collectable on exchaes, nor on contributions in the District, nor on those of confrargisto in the maritime custom-house tast, nor will it be collectable on taxes that have been suppressed, such as mortgages, transfer of property, etc.

The office of direct contributions of the District has a ty, etc.

The office of direct contributions of the District has a net income, during the last fiscal year, of $1,005.071 51, (No. 59). Of this amount it transmitted to the national treasury, $454,150 72; to the office of stamped paper $50,924 49; to the sub-treasury of the District, $296,158 59. mistry of Fomento, $24,989 62; and to the Cit, to the Ministry of Fouento, $24,989 62; and to the City Council, $25,056 29.

The Budget of receipts abolished the contribution on the transfers of property and mortgages in the Federal District; it established the collection, in one payment, of the contributions still due in the District, adding thereto the Federal contribution. It is to be hoped that the proceeds will amount to $500,0000 the sum calculated in the Budget.

The principal revenue office of the District produced. It The principal revenue office of the District produced, in a little more than ten months, from the 20th of August, the time of its establishment, to the 30th of June last (No. 6), the sum of $2,184,565 43. The expenses of said office were $123,562 22. Of the residue, $1,636,133 34 were sent to the National Treasury; $187,754 61 to the Ministry of Fomenic; $244,836 57 to the City Council; and $274,663 59 to the office of stamped paper. These accounts prove, that as regards the principal revenue office of the District, the undget of incomes for the present year will searly equal the income of said office.

The maratime custoin-houses are and will continue to be the most incrative branch of the Federal revenues. The Government has attended to their reorganization with great zeal, making them subordinate exclusively to the Treasury department. A short time since a reform in the organization of some of said custom-houses was recommended to the House, a reform demonstrated by experience to be congenial with the better management of said offices. Notwithstanding the great efforts made in order to have all the custom-house duties enter into the National coffers, this important object has not as yet been fully obtained.

National coffers, this important object has not as yet been fully obtained.

It has, however, the satisfaction to inform the House that much has been done relative to this matter, and that, perissing in the firm resolution to carry out the laws and collecting the national revenue, it hopes, with the said of Congress, to be able to accomplish the desired end during the present itseal year.

Of the Gulf Custow-Houses, that of Vera Cruz is the most productive. It pays the expenses of the Second Division of the army, the reparation of the national roads uniting that port with the capital, and makes considerable resultances to the National Treasury. Those of Tampico and Matamoros, as well as that of Vera Cruz, are in the full possession of the Government, and with their proceeds the expenses of the Taird Division and other public expenses are paid.

The Custom-Houses on the Pacific are not as the Government would desire them to be. They have not produced the results necessary in order to enable the Government to receive all its revenues; thus giving the incomes laid down in have, either on account of the distance from the capital of the Republic, or from their accustomed independence relative to the Treasury Department, or on account of abuses introduced among them, and more recently on account of the serious disturbances at Mazafalia, and irregularities committed at Gunymas. While the Government makes this frunk manifestation, if comeratulates itself on having to state that, during the last fiscal year, the condition of those Custom-Houses has very notably anelicented, and that all things indicate that in the present year they will be on the same footing as those of the Gulf. The Government will omit no sacrides in the first trade and traffic will be greatly increased, and become of more importance than heretofore, on account of their proximity to the railways of the United State. Those on the frontier of Guatenala are in a bad condition, among other reasons, that of the great amount of sinugility. The Government i

An imposing stand has been erected, and the following pieces of fireworks will be exhibited: "Star of America," "Star of Independence," "Yankee Windmill," "Sun Piece," "Yew Tree," and a specially designed grand equestrian statue of Gen. Grant, with appropriate mottoes. Major Gen. Sickies, the Hou. John A. Griswold, and other eminent speakers will address the meeting. Dodworth's full band will furnish the music.

The Republican mass meeting and barbecue most enthusiastic political mass infecting and Dardecule most enthusiastic political meeting ever held in Ordario County. From 15,000 to 20,000 people assembled on the tounty Fair grounds, where cloquent speeches were derivered by Gens, E. M. Lee and Alfren Pleasenton. In the evening, the streets were filled by a large procession of Taubers, bearing torches and transparencies. Many and was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the address, delivered by the Rev. H. L. King of New-York, was received with the greatest enthusiasm. It was determined to hold the final inecting of the Clob on Wednesday, Nev. II. when John Jay, esq., President of the Union League Club, will be requested to address the Club on the result of the elections in each of the States. Three rousing cheers were given for Grant, Colfax, Griswold, Cornell, and King, and the meeting adjourned.

Mr. J. B. Wass, proprietor of the People's Express, has received the nomination for Alderman of the Tenth Ward of Brooklyn, first from the Taxpayers, as a people's candidate, and afterward by the Eepablicans, without opposition; and also unanimously by the Tenth Ward Democratic Association. Mr. Wass served with distinction during the Mexican War, where he was severely wounded, and received personal compliment from President Poik upon his return home. He has never been very prominent in political life, though he was made a target during Know-Nothing times for his opposition to that party. He was also largely instrumental in raising the 17th Regiment, N, Y. S. Volunteers during the late Rebellion.

A well attended meeting of the VIIth As-

Many of the dwellings were brilliantly illuminated and decorated with portraits of Grant. After the procession the Boya repaired to Washington Hall, where they were treated to a bountful collation by the ladies of the village.

The Hon, L. H. Chandler of Virginia, A. W. Tenney, esq., of New-York City, and W. H. Burleigh, esq., of Brooklyin, addressed the largest Republican meeting held in Putman County, at Carnal, on the afternoon and evening of the 28th inst. Messrs. Chandler and Tenney spoke in the afternoon at the fair grounds, in Agricultural Hall, and Mr. Burleigh in the evening at the Court-House. The speeches were excellent, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Large delegations from the adjoining towns were in attendance. Many ladies were also present both during the afternoon and evening. A fine band of music and also the Gice Club of Erewater's Station enlivened the meeting with some of their choicest music.

The veterans of Rensselaer County held an immense meeting in Griswold Opera House, in Troy, yesterday afternoon. Major Gen. James D. Carr presided, and was assisted by a large number of other ex-soidlers. The stage was full of one-legged and one-armed men. The Hon. John A. Griswold arrived at a late hour from New-York, the audience awaiting his conline. He made a brief speech, in the course of which he said that he entertained no doubt of a sweeping Republican victory in this State on Tuesday next, to secure which the friends of law and order had only to see that frauds upon the elective franchise were repressed and an honest expression of the people obtained. He said that the Democracy had not the ghost of a chance, except through fraud; and that cheering words came from all parts of the State that even by all the frauds possible to be committed they would not succeed.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans at the wigwam, in Bedford avenue, in the Nineteenth Ward of Brookiya, last evening, to hear the Hon, Isaac H. Bailey and the Hon. Ethan Allen, on the issues before the people. Mr. Bedfey made an eloquent and logical speech when the Chairman, amid great applause, introduced the Hon. Ethan Allen, who, in the course of an able address, said that the issue between the Rebel party of Jefferson Davis and the Democratle party of Heratio Seymour, was that the former was the contest of the buillet and the latter is the contest of the ballot. The means only have been charged, not the end. The speaker closed his address by saying that the signs of the times gave evidence of the election of U. S. Grant, and then for the first time in eight years, "we would have peace." At the conclusion of the address, the Hon. Wm. Allen was enthusiastically applauded.

A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting, which was presided over by Mr. Hugh N. Camp, was held.

A large and enthusiastic Republican intering, which was presided over by Mr. Hugh N. Camp, was held on Wednesday evening, at Tremont, Westchester County. SAN FRANCISCO DEMOCRACY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Political excitement in this city is at fever heat, and partisan feeling is bitter. There are indications of serious riots previous to, and on election day. Several scarcely noteworthy collisions have already occurred. During the marching of the Republican procession on Tuesday night, the line was attacked a number of times, and some persons sustained serious injuries. Last night the Grant Invincibles and Seymont Club met on Bush-st, and pistols and knives were drawn. Two persons were wounded by pistol shots, and one man was seriously stabled. Mayor McCoppin appeared on the scene, and dispersed the crowd.

At a dinner party given by the Hon. George Bancroft, our Minister at Berlin, in January last, at which Gen. Schurz, and also Mr. Murphy, Consul at Frankfort, were present, Mr. Bancroft said that he regarded it as in the best interests of the country that Grant should be nominated and elected. He thought the reconstruction policy of Congress could be carried out in no other way than by a Republican Administration. He could not think it would be safe or expedient for the Democratic party to come in power at present.
